PINKHAM SHUNS POLITICAL PULLS

Tells Committee Facts
About Appointment
Of Inspector

GIVES REASONS WHY RATBURN GOT JOB

NICHOLAS TURNED DOWN IN SPITE OF RECOMMENDATION, AS HE SEEMED NOT SUITABLE.

An interesting bit of correspondence has been sent by President Pinkham of the Board of Health to the committee of the Board, which was appointed to look into the fishmarket inspector affair, which it has been attempted to give a political aspect. Pinkham relates the facts of the case, showing that he appointed Wm. Ratburn, who was recommended by Senator Achi, on the strict understanding that there were no politics in the matter, and turned down the other applicant, Alex. Nicholas, who was recommended by Sheriff Brown, because he did not seem suitable. Pinkham gives the naked facts of the case, showing that it is his first resolve to keep politics out of the Board of Health. Besides the letter to the committee itself, he also sent it the other correspondence relative to the matter. It is as follows:

Honolulu, Hawaii, Apr. 6, 1906.
To Messrs. Smith, Judd and Peters,
Special Committee on Fish Markets, Honolulu.

Gentlemen:—On assuming my duties as President of the Board of Health and fish markets in operation. The Government market, with an inspector paid by the Government through a regular appropriation; the City Market, with an inspector paid directly by the proprietors of the market; the market at the junction of King and Beretania streets, with an inspector paid directly by the proprietors.

I at once insisted that stated funds be each month deposited with the Secretary of the Board from which these inspectors would be paid, my reasons being that these inspectors acted as agents of the Board of Health and should be free from any control, direct or implied, of the proprietors of the market, and be solely responsible to the Board.

The present Oahu market was started with the agreement that Seventy Dollars per month should be deposited with the Secretary, which has been done each and every month.

The Oahu market rapidly absorbed nearly all the fish market business and drove the Government market entirely out of the business. The Oahu market finally cut into the business of the City Market so that I reduced their deposit to Ten Dollars per month, which sum I have now remitted entirely, as they are practically out of the fish business.

Recently The King fish market has been established. Before issuing the permit for the market I stipulated The King market should have a special in-

CHINESE THREATEN TO GET EVEN WITH COMMITTEE

GREAT MOB ON HOTEL STREET
LAST NIGHT—STORES CLOSED
TO PREVENT ATTACK OF THE RIOTERS.

A riot threatened in the streets of Honolulu last night. The combination of trouble between Chinese of the United Chinese Society called out an emergency force of police, stores were closed by the police to prevent their being wrecked and burned and to protect life and a strong body of police guarded the disturbed section until a late hour, special police being left on watch all night.

On the preceding night there had been a fight in the hall of the United Chinese Society on King street, and the police had to rush the place and club a number of unruly orientals.

The trouble started over money. Lian Tia is the treasurer of the society. There was a dispute at the meeting as to what disposition should be made of some $14,000. The crowd wanted it sent to China, but Wai Kiu and Ito Fen and others believed it better to keep the money here. A howl was raised and fraud was charged.

Not satisfied with the disturbance of Thursday night, a great mob collected on Hotel street last evening, soon after dark, in front of the restaurant of Watkins, the restaurant popularly known as the Wo Fat place. Watkins had stood up in the Thursday night meeting for sending the money to China and the mob waited to wreck the place. There was talk of burning. Between 9 and 10 o'clock things looked very serious. The police turned out in force. County Sheriff Brown and assistant Sheriff Vida drove up to the

LANDS AT HAULULA TO BE RE-OPENED

Chance For Small Farmers On Other Side
Of Island

PRESENT LEASES ARE NOW BEING CANCELLED

ENLARGED LOTS WILL BE DIS-POSED OF AT AUCTION ON FIVE-YEAR INSTALL-MENT PLAN.

Land Commissioner Pratt is at present making preparations to open the homestead lands at Haulula, on the other side of this island, on what is practically a new plan of opening, which is expected to be very satisfactory to the Government as well as highly advantageous to those who wish to take advantage thereof.

The Haulula homestead lands are situated about six miles on the southern side of the Kahuku railway terminus. They are close to the mountains and suitable for cane, pineapple or other such cultivation. Some years ago these lands were opened up on the homestead lease system in three to four-acre lots. In the meantime the people who at that time took up these lands have failed to live up to the prescribed conditions, many of them not even living on the land, and as a consequence the certificates they received are now being cancelled, and the land reverts to the Government.

The new lots will be sold at auction under the following conditions: Ten per cent. of the purchase price shall be paid down at the time and place of the sale. Ten per cent. of the price shall be paid down one year after the sale and the rest of the money in equal installments, two, three, four and five years after the sale, together with interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of 5 per cent. The purchaser has to maintain his home and residence on the property from the end of the first to the end of the fifth year, and shall during the same time plant and maintain on an average of at least five fruit trees per acre, and also provide certain fencing. At the end of the fifth year he obtains a fee simple title to the property, provided that all the conditions mentioned above have been complied with.

An appraiser has looked over the land and values it at $100 an acre, but Pratt intends to place the upset price at only $25 an acre, so that the land will be practically sold at the figure, which the purchasers think it is worth to them.

"We are going to place the price so low and make the installments in the beginning so small in order that the purchasers can spend their money on making improvements," said Pratt today. "The Government does not want a high price for its land as much as it wants settlers who will make improvements and raise its taxable value."

"The Haulula land is right on the route of the projected railway through Koolau. It is right on the boundary of the Kahuku plantation, and it should be very advantageous for the employees of the plantation to take it up, and assure themselves an income on the side in addition to their wages by the cultivation of cane, pineapples or whatever they want to go into."

"Yes, old love is easily rekindled. It is if one becomes possessed of money to burn."—Houston Post.

Philippine Troubles, Declares The Vice-Governor, Greatly Exaggerated

FILIPINOS WOULD NOT WORK HERE

GEN. J. F. SMITH,
VICE GOVERNOR OF THE PHILIPPINES, AS HE WAS WHEN HE WON
HONORS FIGHTING AT THE HEAD OF THE FIRST CALIFORNIA.

The Vice Governor of the Philippines is in the city. General James F. Smith arrived here today in the Mongolia, en route to the mainland on a vacation. He expects to return to the Philippines in August.

The General is a most pleasantly disposed gentleman of average height, weighing at the present writing the weight in a drug store just after landing a shade over 200 pounds.

A Bulletin reporter saw the General in a curio store this forenoon, interrogations bringing forth the following: "Yes, Smith's my name—General Smith—vice-governor of the Philippines and I hope I won't be Governor. I don't want that to happen. I'm on a vacation and must get back to work. In August, I will pass this way again and hope to be able to stop here long enough to see you."

"Pretty place—lovely city—beautiful country—delightful climate—fine hotels—nice people—just what I need. Yes, I wish I could stay longer this time."

"The Philippines are all right. Things are going along there sweetly well. Reports of trouble that reach you here are very much exaggerated. Stories seem to grow according to distance and you know it is a long, long way to Manila."

"I have heard this talk of the United States selling the Philippines to the Japanese government. It is all nonsense. There is nothing in it."

"When Uncle Sam gives up the Philippines islands he will give them up to the people of the Philippines and to no one else."

"There is great work being done in the way of education in the Philippines. We are educating all we can. We are educating all we can."
